KUMORA

CREATIVE STUDIO

Design that looks the way you imagined it.

OUR MATCH · THE FINISHED MARK

WELCOME

Show the reference. We match the expectation.

Kumora is a creative studio for brands and occasions: identity, print, web, web chat and the events in between. Every piece is designed to a reference you choose, so the result looks the way you imagined it before we started.

How we work

Send us the look you have in mind: a website, a brochure, a brand you admire, or a sketch. That reference becomes the standard, and we apply it to your content, your name and your colours. You review, we refine, you approve, and you receive the working files.

One studio, one standard

Because the same studio designs your logo, your stationery, your brochure and your website, they match. The card sits beside the letterhead, the landing page continues the brochure, and the invitation feels like the brand.

PROCESS & DELIVERABLES

Five steps, no surprises.

The same path for a business card or a web application; only the length of each step changes.

01 Brief
What it is for, who it is for, and the reference you want it to match.

02 Direction
We confirm the style, palette and content before any detailed work starts.

03 Design
The piece is designed in full and shared with you for review.

04 Refine
Your changes are applied until the work matches the reference you set.

05 Deliver
Final files, print specifications or a live site, handed over and explained.
